

Stop pandering to the very wealthy owners of major stations and let people in America enjoy a service that is helpful and not cluttered with advertising.